Our goals are clearly defied o get smarter and bigger as we take bigger opportunities and challenges. The transformation required at each stage is met and is visible.

Saroj Kumari Mishra

Progress and Growth has been a part of life. It has always been a distant reality and once one milestone is achieved, there is always another waiting to be crossed. I have always believed that there are a lot people who have laid trust in me when I started this company in year 2008. They have given the best years of their life on my promises. I respect the trust laid on me when Indigo had just bloomed. I have always believed that growth is a one of the prime indicators of life. Starting from Onsite food Services, we have added strengths in being a Turnkey business support partners to our clients. Today each of the associate company of Indigo Group, with their proficient team, is known for its best deliveries in the areas of its expertise. I can assure that the same tempo is to continue towards business excellence and results, in the benefit of both our clients and team members.
